

Programme Scope

 Introduction to Indian Textile and Apparel Technology

Visits to Traditional Handloom, Mass
Production Units, wholesale markets and retail outlet

 Interactions with industry experts, designers, suppliers and buyers to explore business opportunities

Exposure to the cultural context for Indian textiles and fashion

Partners

Gles Brooker Group develops and delivers innovative solutions for capability development in higher education, with respect and integrity, across selected countries in the Indo-Asia-Pacific region. The Islamic Fashion Institute, based inBandung, West Java, Indonesia offers programmes including the Indonesian National Competency Standards (SKKNI) curriculum, based on Islamic rules

Programme details:

Duration: 7 days

Programme confirmation: 45 days before departure

Minimum numbers: 10 participants

Investment: US $ 600 approximately

Cost Includes: Programme cost, Board and Lodging, Local transportation &

Sightseeing excursions.

Excludes: International travel, Visas, Insurance & Service on special requests

Further details please contact:

Prabha Govindasamy

Giles Brooker Group

MObile: +91 9597310680 Email: office@gilesbrooker.com