

Internship in Vietnam

Culinary Arts/ Hotel Management

Dong A University, in Da Nang, Vietnam, is collaborating with educational developers, Giles Brooker Education Development Services, India, a member of Giles Brooker Group (Singapore, India and New Zealand) to facilitate an internship opportunity for current or recent culinary students to gain international experience and explore traditional and contemporary culinary practices in Vietnam.

About the internship

The internship will be offered by Dong A University in collaboration with its industrial partners in Da Nang. Students will be placed in reputed hotels in Danang city.

About Vietnam

A rapidly growing economy and a fast-evolving country, Vietnam offers a wide variety of internship opportunities, ranging from global development to science and technology. The small Southeast Asian country located on the Indochina Peninsula and bordered by the South China Sea boasts the 13th largest population in the world.

About Da Nang

Da Nang marks the halfway point between the capital in the north, Hanoi, and Ho Chi Minh City in the south. It's the fourth largest city in Vietnam and a major tourist centre offering an exciting combination of both cultural-historical discoveries and bustling urban life.

One of the main attractions around Da Nang is the extended coastline with beach resorts galore. Da Nang's coastline stretches 30 kilometres and is renowned for calm, cool waters and also popular for fishing, water-skiing, diving, and yachting.

About Dong A University:

Dong A University is located in Da Nang city, which is a place of spirit of fondness for learning, creation and resilience. To provide the human resources for tourism in the area in particular and Central Vietnam in general, the Faculty of Tourism focuses on training two majors: - Hospitality Management & Tourism Business Management.
